A WALKERS DAY OUT TO SUTTON BANK ON SATURDAYS

Every Saturday (4th May to 28th September 2019)

How to get there:- Depart on M8/M6 bus outside Malton Railway Station 1015 (the bus uses normal bus stops thereafter – Old Lodge Hotel; Old Malton; Eden Camp etc). Stay on the bus to Kirkbymoorside Market Place at 11.00. There is a connecting M4 bus (at the same stop) at 11.00. It will take you to Helmsley.

Then you have two options:-

1. Get off at Helmsley Monument, ask directions to the Walled Garden, and just before the lane to the Walled Garden, on the edge of the big car-park, you will see the Cleveland Way, waymarked on your right. Follow the Cleveland Way “acorn” signs to the Rievaulx valley road, about 3 miles including two flights of steps, visit the abbey and terraces if you wish, and then double back as far as the river bridge to find the waymark signs for about 4 miles to Sutton Bank, including some rocky/ un-even tracks.

2. Alternatively, stay on the M4 bus, which will take you to Rievaulx, and then walk along the Cleveland Way to Sutton Bank from there.

Though the Cleveland Way is quite well way-marked, it is a good idea to take a map, or to download the route on to a mobile phone. Also, wear sturdy shoes or boots, take a waterproof jacket, and take a full water bottle and snacks.

How to get home again:-

On Saturdays here are a few options for the journey home,

1) The M4 bus will return to Rievaulx Abbey at 15.12 or Sutton Bank Centre bus stop at 15.37 (depart 16.00), or Helmsley 16.15. It will then take you to Kirkbymoorside, giving you 50 minutes to explore Kirkbymoorside, which is charming and quiet on Saturday afternoons, with three pubs, one cafe, two bakers, a deli, two charity shops, and antique shop and a real green grocer open to choose from. The M3 will pick you up from the same stop in Kirkbymoorside Market Place at 17.22, taking you to Malton.

2) Catch the M4 at Sutton Bank at 16.00, but get off at Helmsley for a quick shop, or ice cream. Catch the EY 128 by The Monument in Helmsley Market Square at 16.25. Get off at the Ropery in Pickering at 17.10 and then catch the M6 at the same stop at 17.20 for Norton and Malton, or 17.37 at same stop for Malton (continues to York) East Yorks 128 accepts and sells Moorsbus all-day tickets.
