News and information

Picnic in the Park Sat 7 Jul

It is less than a couple of weeks to the annual festivities in the grounds of Thirsk Hall. Gazebo pitches are sold out and it might be a good idea to get your tickets this week before they all go too.. The headline act is Faith - The George Michael Legacy. Also see Tina Turner - a Tribute by Niqi Brown. This is a real community event attracting thousands of people and raises money for Action Medical Research and local charities. Tickets are available at Thirsk's information centre with payment in cash or on a card. You can also get them at Zillah Bell Gallery, Thirsk, CB Furnishings (Northallerton, Ripon & Thirsk) and Calverts Rug Shop in Thirsk.

Local NHS meeting

The formal AGM of the local Clinical Commissioning Group will take place from 3.30 to 4.30pm on Thursday 28th June at the Golden Lion Hotel, Northallerton. It is a chance to ask questions about your local health services.

Artisan food & drink markets

There will be two new artisan food and drinks markets this summer in Thirsk on Sat 28 Jul and Sat 25 Aug. Food and drink businesses who would like to know more about participating should ring 01609 779977 or email: rowanne.hibbit@hambleton.gov.uk

A great use of free time

The Thirsk Oxfam shop needs people to help stay open at weekends. If you can help for four hours please contact them. There is also a Wednesday afternoon vacancy for a till operator. You should be a team player and have a passion to end poverty, suffering and injustice around the world. Call in for an application form, have a look around the back rooms and see what goes on there. Or call 01845 523081 and ask for Claire.

Our future bus services

Contracts for North Yorkshire County Council subsidised local bus services in our area are due for renewal shortly. They are seeking comments on these services, to be better informed when preparing tenders for new contracts. Subsidised bus services that are to be considered for renewal are the 54, 55, 59/60/60A, 70, 80, 89, 147, 150, 153 and 155. If you would like to make a comment regarding these specific services, write to Public Transport, NYCC, County Hall, Northallerton DL7 8AH or email passenger.transport@northyorks.gov.uk. The deadline is Fri 13 Jul, please say if your comments may be shared.
