

Title: First Trip on the Moors Rambler

First trip on the Moors Rambler yesterday. Good to see it 80% full. Due to dodgy foot I enjoyed a bike ride down Rosedale on my little Dahon folder. Bus was on time for every journey.

Unfortunately, I'm one of the few who pays on buses but gets free on train (most are the other way round) - so a total of £14 in fares is a tad expensive when I could do Esk Valley trains for nowt!

That said, I'll be back on the Rambler soon. Huge thanks to all at FoM for getting this off the ground.
